

i.relax Aroma Diffuser

Product Name: i.relax Aroma Diffuser

Manufacturer: -

Model Number: PGIFTS0728

A fast paced way of life can be very tiring in this modern world, in fact it can be mentally and physically draining. Oregon have designed a way to de-stress after a long hard day at work. The i-relax has a unique way to stimulate your senses to relax your body and mind. Aromatherapy, light therapy and sound therapy all incorporated in one stylish unit.

Relax your mind and body with the Oregon Scientific WS903! The WS903 aroma diffuser stimulates three of your senses - smell, sight and hearing - with three different natural elements: aromatherapy, light therapy and sound therapy. The timer setting means you can program the WS903 to release the essential oil when it suits you, relieving tension and helping you to breathe more clearly in cold winter days. You can calm your mood with natural sounds such as birds' singing, waterfall or ocean waves. Meanwhile, light therapy on the WS903 by Oregon Scientific uses 6 different colours to improve your health
